VISIT OF WEST GERMAN CHANCELLOR LUDWIG ERHARD TO U. S., DECEMBER, 1966 INTERNAL SECURITY - WEST GERMANY

On December 19, 1966, Detective Bill Warwick, Special Investigative Squad, Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., telephonically advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SA of the FBI) that he had received the following information from one Ilona Gyorki, 1915 Calvert Street, N. W.:

Dr. Michael Bartalos, who resides at 5105 - 57th Avenue, Bladensburg, Maryland, home telephone 778-8296, plans to march and hand out pamphlets on December 20, 1966, between noon and 12:30 p. m., on the north side of Lafayette Park. He will be accompanied by approximately ten other individuals, identities unknown. No signs will be carried, and the pamphlets will refer to Hungarians who wish asylum in West Germany, but are refused asylum and sent back to their country of origin. The demonstration is planned to impress West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard during his visit to Washington on December 20, 1966.

The above information was furnished to Special Agent Radford W. Jones, United States Secret Service, on December 19, 1966.

On June 30, 1966, a file pertaining to one Ilona Maria Jancoska Gyorki, nee Szabo, also known as Mrs. Ilona S. Gyorki, Mrs. Ilona M. Salenky, maintained at the Washington Field Office of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), was reviewed by a SA of the FBI and noted to contain the following information. Ilona Gyorki, INS file number A 11-009-837, born July 19, 1926, at Keszthely, Hungary, entered the United States as "refugee-escapee" on June 8, 1960, for permanent residence destined to 617 Mellow Street, S. E., Washington, D. C.
